

Bloomfield Citizen.

A WEEKLY JOURNAL
PUBLISHED BY
WILLIAM A. RITSCHER, JR.
at Bloomfield, Essex County, N. J.

Office: 314 Glenwood Avenue

Subscription, $2.00 per year, in advance; 6 months, $1.00; Three months, 50¢.

Entered at the Post-Office of Bloomfield as second class.

THE CITIZENS solicit contributions from the general public, any subject, pictures, educational, or social, so long as they do not contain any personal attack.

All communications must be accompanied by the writer's name, not necessarily for publication, but as an evidence of good faith.

Advertisements for insertion in the current week must be in hand not later than Friday noon.

SATURDAY, JULY 14, 1894.

Israel D. Condit.

Surrounded by his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, Israel D. Condit, one of the oldest and most prominent residents of Essex County, on Monday celebrated the ninety-second anniversary of his birth at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. E. T. Whittington, widow of the late Dr. E. T. Whittington, on Millburn Avenue, Millburn. The event was observed in a quiet manner.

The venerable man enjoys good health, possesses all his faculties, and from present indications will pass beyond the century mark.

Mr. Condit was born in the Condit homestead, which was situated on Main Street, Orange, in 1802. He is the youngest son and only surviving child of John and Mary Condit. His mother was a Miss Mary Dodd, daughter of Captain Amos Dodd, of the Continental Army, and lived at Bloomfield. The captain often entertained General Washington at his residence.

To Finish the Street.

Joseph W. Eller, Chairman of the East Orange Sewer Committee, and George Barrett, Superintendent of the disposal of sewer waste, will play on the Orange Avenue, this afternoon, at four o'clock.

The contest promises to be one of the most exciting of the season, as the Orange team is very anxious to win the first place.

Mr. Eller is hoping to have Riverview thoroughly cleaned all the way through this township. He has had the conducts on the newer grounds white-washed, and is taking every precaution to obviate any possibility of a nuisance at the works. A合理 quantity of the very best quality of disinfectants is being used and those who have re-bettered the old grounds.

The flushing of the sewer is an original idea with the present managers of the disposal works and is approved by Inspectors Corby of this town. The flood gates are opened about every four hours,

A Rail and a Fight.

The Italian employed by Contractor Harper in filling the Glen Ridge Quarry got into an altercation on Thursday. One of the men was on the bank on the North side of the quarry, when a part of it gave way, and he was precipitated down into the lake of water in the bottom of the pit. His mishap caused two other Italians to fall in the lake also, and when they got out they started to beat the man who caused their drowning.

Other workmen ran to the scene and stopped the fight.

A Yachting Cruise.

A party of young men from this town left yesterday on a yachting cruise on Long Island Sound. They expect to be gone about two weeks. They will cruise outward along the Connecticut shore and the return trip will be along the Long Island coast. Malcolm Nash will act as sailing master for the party, which will consist of Gilbert White, F.
H. Bowron, Clarence Bowron, Howard N. Thomas, George W. Cook, Jr., Edwin
G. Ward, Jr., Brown Morgan, Millard Roubaud, and Clarence Buddlum.

An unusual opportunity.

The enterprising Newark dry-goods firm of L. Bamberger & Co. are at present engaged in the disposal of their remaining spring and summer stock at such low prices that it is almost wasteful extravagance not to purchase while the sale is in progress. The goods are new, having been bought during the past month, and the only reason for this sale and the entertaining bargains it contains is that it is contrary to the business policy of the firm to carry goods from season to season, and rather than do so they have marked many of them down less than cost price. Their establishment, well named "The always busy store," has been thronged since the sale began. It is an unusual opportunity to supply present and future wants that should not be allowed to escape. Advt.

Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, and has perfect success. It soothes the soft cantharides pain, allays the pain caused by diarrhea, and is the best remedy for Diarrhea. It will relieve the little sufferings of childhood. Sold by Druggists and grocers throughout the world. 25c a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs.
Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. Advt.

A Surprise.
The members of the Epworth League of the Park M. E. Church completely surprised their president, Clarence E.
Van Winkle, on Wednesday night at his home in Montgomery Street. The affair was skillfully planned and successfully carried out. When Mr. Van Winkle arrived home in the evening he was invited out to the house of some friends.
When he went there he found his friend deeply interested in some music which they wished his assistance in practicing.
Mr. Van Winkle unexpectedly allowed him to become deeply absorbed in the music. In the meantime there was some lively hustling going on at his own home. The groups about the house were being decorated and illuminated and other preparations in progress for a gala night. The messenger summoned Mr. Van Winkle home to see some men who had called. When he approached the house he was astonished at the transformation and still more surprised to find the Leaguers in possession of the premises. The party had a merry night of it. Music, games, and refreshments were features of the festivities.

A Narrow Escape.

John Higgins, gatekeeper at the Glen Ridge Avenue railroad crossing, saved the life of John Levi, a veteran soldier from Little Falls, on Thursday morning. Levi was walking on the track in the direction of the station, and the 11:20 train was coming into the depot at a rapid rate of speed, the engineer blew the whistle loud and rapidly, and Levi seemed to get all confused, the locomotive was only a few feet away from him when Mr. Higgins ran and grabbed hold of the man and pulled him from the track. Levi was an aged man and in desperate circumstances. It was some time before he recovered from the shock his nerves had sustained. Mr. Higgins supplied him with some tea and food, and directed him to the Overseer of the Poor. Those who witnessed the occurrence give Mr. Higgins credit for his promptness and bravery.

Severon Dogs.

The second time this season the Orange Athletic Club and the Ironclads of Newark will play on the Orange Oval, East Orange, this afternoon at four o'clock.
The contest promises to be
one of the most exciting of the season,
as the Orange team is very anxious to
win the first place.

The Ironclads are very popular and the spectators passed out free lunch on the victory.

The Board of Health is ordered to provide a suitable building in a convenient locality, place it in the care of some responsible persons, and let it out to those who desire to use it for the dispensing of disinfectants.

The Ironclads, the band master, and the conductor, are to be present.

The Ironclads will be present at the dispensing of disinfectants.

The Ironclads will not be a game at Orange again for two weeks till doubtless a good crowd present. The following week Orange plays at Englewood.

W. C. E.

The Bloomfield Woman's Christian Temperance Union's ball on Washington Avenue next to the Baptist Church, will be finished this week. Owing to the vacation time when so many of the members and friends of the temperance cause are away, the dedication will probably be postponed until September.

The weekly meeting of the Union is held every Tuesday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, when the hall is open. The public generally are invited to call and inspect the building which is large, comfortable, and very pleasant and convenient for the meetings.

The ballroom, the band master, and the conductor, are to be present.

You had better wait a minute," was the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a dead stop, unless they are provided with an collar and ring bearing the name and address of the owner, in which case the latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"Well," said Mr. McNeil, "you can stop now, and we'll get off."

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was
the reply. "We are approaching a curve
and will as usual, come along to a
dead stop, unless they are provided with
an collar and ring bearing the name and
address of the owner, in which case the
latter is to be notified, and by paying
the fee of three dollars may redeem the
dog. The fee of three dollars, however,
is to be paid to the conductor.

"You had better wait a minute," was